The

huge and powerful hawk dominated the scene. It's talons pierced the woman's flesh and the beak pointed towards her eyes... For George Palmer-Jones, ornithologist and amateur detective, the sight of the dead woman is a horrible shock. George and his wife Molly had been staying at victim Eleanor Masfield's family-run hotel at the time of her death, and while George believes Eleanor was a beautiful and charming widow senselessly murdered, Molly has other ideas. Is Eleanor an innocent victim, possibly the first of many, or was she more a black widow, a ruthless manipulator of all those caught in her far-reaching web, who finally met her match?
